

DECEMBER 2017

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all;

As the end of the year is approaching, here is the new schedule that will take us through the Lenten Season, Easter Sunday, and the end of April. I have assigned lectors for Wednesday evening Masses during Lent, same as last year, but as of yet final Lenten celebrations and times have not been finalized by the parish staff. As soon as I know the details I will let those who are assigned know as well.

The ministry fair in October gave us nine potential names that I hope to work into the schedule. I want to meet with them in early January and see how they do, as well as get their preferences for Mass times. That being said, you'll notice some blanks in the schedule starting in March and April where I hope to put them to work. Those of you who are scheduled on those dates, will be contacted with names so you know who you'll be reading with, and so you can help them through the process.

Two orders of business: It's been brought to my attention that it's hard to hear some of you especially in the back of church. Please remember to stand or lean in closer to the mic so you can be heard. As always PLEASE find a replacement if you can't make your scheduled times. We've had some people not show leaving only one, and in some cases no lectors at all. If you are the replacement please show or find another lector if you can't make it yourself. As always THANK YOU for all you do, and keep up the good work.

Many Blessings,
Art
